Bolshevik Cultural and Business Complex was named Business Centre of the Year according to The Moscow Times Awards 2015

Moscow, Russia. December 3, 2015. The Bolshevik Cultural and Business Complex, a joint venture between O1 Properties and the Tactics Group, has won the prestigious Moscow Times Award in the category 'Business Centre of the Year'. The awards ceremony was held in the Metropol Hotel on 2 December.

The Moscow Times Awards determine the best achievements in the cultural and business life of the capital, as judged by the foreign community, journalists and correspondents from leading international media. Apart from 'Business Centre of the Year' there are also categories including 'Investor of the Year', 'Country-Partner of the Year', 'Business Event of the Year', 'Strategic Venture Investor of the Year', and 'Man in the Field of Culture'. In the 'Business Centre of the Year' category, the 'Bolshevik' Centre was up against projects such as the Dominion Tower, Evolution Tower, Moscow Technopolis and the Nagatino i-Land Business Park.

The Bolshevik Cultural and Business Complex is located on the site of a former confectionery plant of the same name, in Leningradsky Avenue. That complex was built at the end of the 19th century by the French architect Oscar Dio. Three buildings within the complex have cultural heritage status. The current complex has been adapted to the needs of modern life – it forms a landscaped, modern business centre with loft-style offices, and in 2016, a Museum of Russian Impressionism will be opened in one of the buildings. The distinctive features of the buildings are their unique, fully restored, historical brick facades, arched windows and high ceilings.
