

Results of the Tennis Europe O1 Properties Christmas Cup 2016

Moscow, Russia. 12 January – In the Alexander Ostrovsky Academy of Tennis in Khimki the Tennis Europe O1 Properties Christmas Cup among juniors up to 15 years finished. Players from 17 countries of the Eastern and Western Europe, as well as from Northern America took part in the Cup Final. This year this largest Russian junior tournament took place from 2 until 10 January and brought victory to players of the national teams of Russia, Ukraine, Poland and Serbia.

The solemn opening ceremony of the Tennis Europe O1 Properties Christmas Cup was held on 3 January. At the opening ceremony Alexander Ostrovsky, the General Director of O1 Properties, delivered his welcoming remarks wishing the players good luck in the tournament. The organizers managed to retain a high bar for standards set during the previous two tournament seasons.

In the Final of the O1 Properties Christmas Cup 2016 among boys the victory was won by Alibek Kachmazov from Russia, and among girls – by Darya Snigur from Ukraine. The winners of the men's pair became David Tachala from Poland and Viktor Jovic from Serbia, and the winners of the women's pair were Darya Astakhova and Maria Shusharina from Russia.

The junior tournament in Khimki is held for the third consecutive year already. This year the final matches of the tournament were attended by Shamil Tarpishev, the President of the Russian Tennis Federation, and Aleksey Selivanenko, the Federation's Vice-President. After the matches, Shamil Anvyarovich, Aleksey Evgenyevich and Alexander Ostrovsky took part in the awards ceremony of the tournament winners and prize-winners.
