O1 Properties announces opening of new season of O1 Football League

Moscow, Russia. May 16, 2014 - Investment company O1 Properties, one of the largest owners of class A office real estate in Moscow, announces the start of a new, third in a row season of O1 Football League. The opening ceremony and first games of 2014 will take place on May 17th in the football fields of Olympia Park office center.

This year in tournaments within O1 Football League are participating 49 corporate teams, including Otkritie financial corporation, Slavneft, Weatherford, Clifford Chance, Canon, CBRE, PwC, LG, Nike, Tinkoff Credit Systems, O1 Properties, O1 Group and others. The games will be held every Saturday and Sunday, and the final game is scheduled for July 20. The winning team will take the main prize — the challenge cup of the O1 League as well as other prizes from the sponsors.

Alexander Ostrovsky, CEO of O1 Properties: «The games of O1 Football League are played every year, being definitely one of the most significant sport events in our industry. All participants — tenants of our office centers and partners of O1 Properties — are looking forward to them. We believe it is important to promote a healthy lifestyle and team spirit in our company. We are happy to see our initiative is supported by our colleagues who meet with us not only in the environment of office centers but also on the football fields.
