O1 Properties takes part in Earth Hour for the seventh time

Moscow, Russia. March 21, 2018. O1 Properties will take part for the seventh time in the Earth Hour global environmental initiative, which will be held this year on March 24. External illumination of the Company's business centres will be switched off for one hour starting from 20.30.

Earth Hour is a symbolic action, which highlights the importance of a caring and responsible attitude towards the natural world and its resources. The occasion has been marked worldwide every year since 2007. Nearly 7000 cities in over 184 countries take part in the initiative.

O1 Properties has taken part in Earth Hour since 2012.

O1 Properties works to protect the environment as part of its programme of corporate social responsibility. As the largest owner of office real estate in Russia, O1 Properties certifies its buildings to the BREEAM international environmental performance standard. The Company also invests in the creation of green recreation areas around its business centres, enhancing the quality of the urban environment.
