

O1 Properties Will Take Part in Light It Up Blue Campaign

Moscow, Russia. 29 March 2016. - The investment company O1 Properties, one of the largest owners of Class A office properties in Moscow, is going to attend the international Light It Up Blue Campaign organized in honor of children with autism. The event will be held in Moscow on April 2 as part of World Autism Awareness Day. On this day, the facades of three O1 Properties' business centres (Lighthouse, Silver City, and LeFORT) will be illuminated with blue lights. The campaign will last from 7:18 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. by Moscow time.

Alexander Ostrovsky, CEO of O1 Properties: "We are glad to once again join the Light It Up Blue Campaign in honor of people with autism. This is a great opportunity for us to support children who need help. I'm very happy that this international campaign is attracting more and more participants here in Moscow every year. "

The Light It Up Blue Campaign has been held since 2008 on the initiative of the Autism Speaks fund. In honor of people with this problem, facades of buildings worldwide are lit up in blue. Iconic landmarks, cultural sites, large office and retail centres take part in the Light It Up Blue Campaign – from the Empire State Building in New York to the Singapore Lyric Opera. Moscow joined this global initiative in 2013. This time, in particular, blue lights will be shining on 12 buildings on Novy Arbat and Tverskaya Street.
